The Court having considered the premises of the Motion and the Declaration of the Receiver attached to the Motion, and finding good cause to grant the Motion, it is therefore

ORDERED FURTHER that, with respect to the sale of the Property, a portion of the proceeds of sale shall be credited or disbursed at closing to pay (a) any real property taxes due and owing or accrued on account at the time of closing, (b) any hold for estimated unpaid water and sewer charges, (c) the pro rata portion of any gas, water and sewer, and/or electric service charges accrued and/or due as of the date of closing, (d) the settlement or closing charges, including the fees charged by the title company or attorney to conduct the closing, if any, to be paid by the Seller, (e) the Receiver's compensation of 6% of the sale price (to be split equally with any Buyer's agent), and (f) reimbursement to the Receiver of $977.41 for her work and payments related to preparing the Property for sale, maintaining it, and transitioning the utilities, plus reimbursement for additional utility payments the Receiver has made until the time of closing. The Court further orders that the

ORDERED FURTHER that the sale of the Property shall be free and clear of all existing rights, titles, claims, liens, and interests, including any right of redemption; and it is ORDERED FURTHER that the use of the Receiver's Deed for the sale of the Property that is attached to this Order is approved, and the Recorder's Office for the county where the Property is situated shall permit the recording of the deed after it is executed. The deed shall convey all of the rights, titles, claims, and interests that Laura Dombrowski has in the Property to the buyer, Elizabeth Wiecezra.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
